Ovarian Remnant Syndrome - Canine

INDICATIONS

Test protocol to confirm the presence of functioning ovarian tissue in bitches showing signs of oestrus. No baseline sample is required for this test.

Protocol

1. Human Chorionic Gonadotrophin (hCG) - is available as Chorulon from Intervet
2. Inject 44 IU/ kg intramuscularly during behavioural oestrus
3. 2 weeks later collect 2 ml blood into a plain/gel tube
4. Label tube with name and time of sample
5. Submit tube with separated serum and request form to the laboratory.

Notes

1 ml of separated serum is required -refer to the current price list for assay cost

Testing is for Progesterone