

VetConnect PLUS

2025 Release Notes

July 22, 2025

In-house laboratory test initiation (available in select countries)

This new feature enables customers to initiate in-house diagnostics via VetConnect® PLUS and enable automatic matching of patient records. This is a completely optional workflow change to improve the experience for a select group of customers that do not have a practice information management system with two-way integration.

